

Web Design Basics

Project #1

Part 2

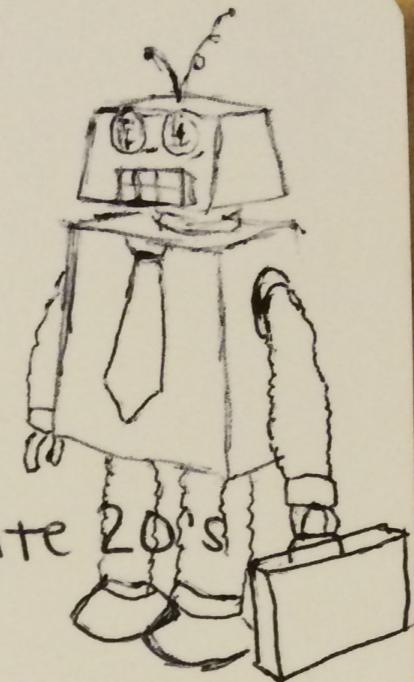

Jon Setzen Interview

Current Target Reader:

Entrepreneur, mid-late 20's

My Target Reader:

Children, 8-10

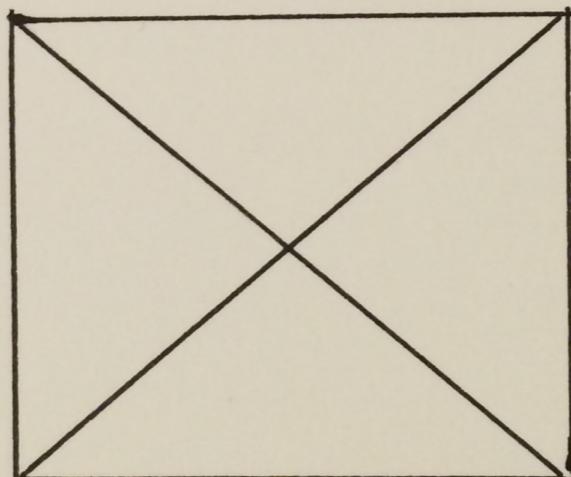

THE GREAT DISCONTENT | Mag. | DigFest | Films | Follow | Shop | Q&A

An Interview With

JON SETZEN

Designer, developer, entrepreneur

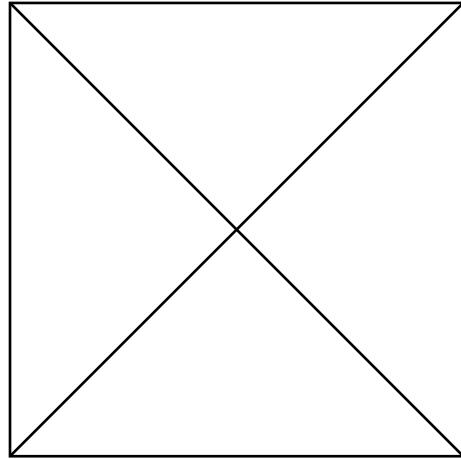

"Even though I liked to draw, I think the main part of creativity for me was imagination and make-believe... It was that kind of stuff from childhood that, in a weird way, gave me confidence to experiment and try new things."

An Interview with:

JON SETZEN

Designer/Developer/Entrepreneur

“Even though I liked to draw, I think the main part of creativity for me was imagination and make-believe...It was that kind of stuff from childhood that, in a weird way, gave me confidence to experiment and try new things.”

< p >

TINA: Describe your path to what you’re doing now. I went to college at the University of Oregon, and I was really interested in photojournalism because I had always wanted to be a photographer. My grandfather was a photographer; that was his hobby that he did all the time. When I was growing up, I spent a lot of time with him in the darkroom, and I loved that process. Every time I take a photo, I can still hear him saying, “Hold that camera steady!” (laughing) He was

Fun Fact:
Jon owns
3
businesses

An Interview with:

JON SETZEN

Designer/Developer/Entrepreneur

“Even though I liked to draw, I think the main part of creativity for me was imagination and make-believe...It was that kind of stuff from childhood that, in a weird way, gave me confidence to experiment and try new things.”

TINA: Describe your path to what you're doing now. I went to college at the University of Oregon, and I was really interested in photojournalism because I had always wanted to be a photographer. My grandfather was a photographer; that was his hobby that he did all the time. When I was growing up, I spent a lot of time with him in the darkroom, and I loved that process. Every time I take a photo, I can still hear him saying, “Hold that camera steady!” (laughing) He was

Fun Fact:
Jon owns
3
businesses